Woburn, MA – Winning Home, Inc. - a private, non-profit charitable organization that provides services and support to children who are economically, socially, physically, emotionally or mentally handicapped or disadvantaged and their families - is formally announcing today the selection of four new members to its Board of Directors. This group of new members brings a range of experience, including a diverse history of public service, to the Board.

“We are looking forward to the input and expertise of these individuals, who each provide a unique and valuable perspective, as Winning Home continues its ongoing commitment to improving the lives of disadvantaged children and their families, as is defined by our mission,” said President Thomas Martin.

Winning Home, Inc. is governed by a Board of Directors under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. All of the Directors of Winning Home, Inc. serve on a volunteer, unpaid basis.

Individuals who are nominated to serve on the Winning Home Board of Directors should have demonstrated experience and accomplishment in his or her chosen endeavors in business, their profession, non-profit fields, good standing within their communities and a positive record of involvement in charitable work in one or more positions. The following members were appointed in September 2012.
